OVERVIEW

Founder - Two Way Resume

Thanks for checking out my site!

Wanted to take this page to provide a little background on myself as well as share some non-work accomplishments and awards. As a person, I am an enthusiastic individual who is highly personable. Self-driven, I am always looking for my next project and eager to begin something new. I consider myself a problem solver, being able to think outside the box to provide a solution that may not be obvious to others. Whether working in teams or independently, I have had success in managing projects to complete tasks efficiently and effectively.
